Class 3 were truly tired this week; whilst introducing their literacy task of writing instructions they learned how to change a wheel on a car, then write the instructions.

Lessons anyone?!

Ready to race! Great effort at KS2 Cross Country this week, keep it up and wrap up warm

Christmas Dinner—TUESDAY
17th December—Turkey with all the trimmings followed by Santa Hat cupcakes—£2.40

All smiles in Class One this week as they crafted, cooked and sprinkled their way to Dwali, Remembrance Sunday and Bonfire night bliss!

Class One are looking forward to making full use of their redesigned outdoor space when the red fence in the playground is adjusted in the near future.

Class 2 have been reusing bottle bottoms & tops to create their stunning Remembrance Sunday tribute.

Mrs Cowper and Mrs Burton would like to remind the choir to look up and practise the Young Voices songs and dance moves!

Our thanks go to Mrs Benbow for delivering such engaging and thought provoking Godly Play sessions to children of all ages.

Remember—No ASC on Thu 14th Nov due to staff training—Sorry

Please remember PE kits to be in school all week and to label all children's clothing
