7th June 2019

We are sorry to learn that Rev. Sarah will be leaving the parish at the end of July. We are so grateful for her enthusiasm and involvement, not only at this school, but across the Much Wenlock area. The children have enjoyed learning about the importance of the Christian faith and having an insight into other religions across the world. A huge thank you to Rev. Sarah for all her support.

Children from Class 3 enjoyed a day of Kwik Cricket at the annual Cound cricket tournament. Some super teamwork and competitive play from everyone involved. Well done all!
